

Adelaide

Barossa Valley

South Australia

This small state has it all. Visitors can cellar hop in the Barossa Valley and cycle between vineyards and churches in the Clare Valley. Meet native wildlife on Kangaroo Island and swim with The sea lions on the Eyre Peninsula. Four wheel drive past the deep gorges of the Flinders Ranges and soar over Wilpena Pound and glide past the willow-fringed banks of the Murray River on a Houseboat. From historic buildings to pristine islands, you will love South Australia's rich heritage and spectacular attractions.

Adelaide

Adelaide is a well designed easy to walk city – admire the elegant colonial architecture and browse museums and libraries along North Terrace. Shop up a storm at Rundle Mall or sample the fresh produce from the Adelaide Central Market. Take a cultural tour of the Adelaide Botanical Gardens with a local Kaurna guide or simply sit on the beach in Glenelg soaking up the sun.

Barossa Valley

The Barossa is one of Australia's best known and most important wine regions. Its wines are world famous and with more than 50 cellar doors in this compact region, there is plenty of opportunity for visitors to taste and learn about the region's most prized product.
