

AUCKLAND

Auckland is an exciting, sporting and cultural city, sprawled on a narrow isthmus, between two harbours. The Waitemata and Manukau Harbours are a main feature of the city along with numerous volcanic cones such as Mount Eden and Rangitoto Island.

The city's many beaches, marinas and parks make it ideal for outdoor pursuits such as yachting, rugby, cricket or a day at the beach. The Auckland metropolitan area is New Zealand's biggest city and the population mix of European, Maori and Pacific Islanders make Auckland the largest Polynesian city in the world.

BAY OF ISLANDS

The Bay of Islands is a stunningly beautiful length of sand and rock coastline that circles a sea pierced by 150 islands. Wherever you are in the Bay of Islands, it is impossible to escape the lure of the sea. Catch a ferry or charter boat and immerse yourself in the blue-green world of island and beach.

The townships of this historical bay are alive with memories of the area's colourful history. Visitors are welcome to explore the well-preserved relics of the past, both Maori and European, in romantic Russell, Paihia, Waitangi or Kerikeri.

COROMANDEL PENINSULA

With 400 kilometers of coastline, The Coromandel is the perfect place for a beach-hopping holiday. Road trips are made even more spectacular by the red-flowering Pohutukawa trees dotted along the roadside. Rustic, laid-back and unspoiled, this is a place where you can fully relax. Charter a boat in Mercury Bay, go mountain biking or explore the Gold Rush History, but whatever else you do a visit to Hot Water Beach is a must; thermal springs well up under Hot Water Beach so when the tide goes out you can dig your own spa in the sand.
