BEACH AND HOTEL STAYS

Exotik Tours believes that the quality of service offered throughout your vacation is extremely important and contributes to the success of your trip. This is why we have uniquely chosen our suppliers at destination. We carefully studied the companies' goals and quality of service and ensured that they match our standards. Their professionalism is undeniable and the majorities have been around for years, continuing to offer excellent service. They appreciate that client satisfaction is the key to their existence.

The majority of our beach and hotel stay programs include flights, transfers, accommodation and a certain number of meals.

In addition, for certain popular destinations, a bilingual representative is available for assistance, inquiries and needs. They are your source of information to the many optional excursions and activities offered at destination.

TOURS

When planning our tours, we take into consideration the length of stay and pace, allowing you to explore, sightsee and have some free time to discover the sites at your leisure.

While some tours require more travel time from one place to the next due to their geographical layout, others are shorter allowing for more free time.

GUIDES AT DESTINATION

Our multilingual guides at destination have been trained locally, allowing them to experience first hand, the history, cultures, religions and daily life of the people. Their passion, hospitality, knowledge and dedication contribute to an unforgettable experience. When venturing outside the big cities, our qualified guides will explain in depth, the different facets of each site. During a city tour, a local English speaking guide will hop on board your motor coach and offer further information on the city's highlights.

QUALITY TRANSPORTATION VEHICLES

The modes of transportation used during our tours are comfortable, clean and air conditioned (unless air-conditioning is not required, ex: Bhutan, etc). The size of vehicle used will depend on the type of tour you're on and the number of passengers. The licensed drivers are carefully selected by our local suppliers in accordance to their knowledge and conduct.

BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE

Please note that the baggage allowance included in the majority of our tours is one bag per person. Depending on the tour, a carry on or backpack may be required. Please be sure to check with your travel agent.

QUALITY CONTROL

A Quality Control document is included in your travel documents. Your comments and suggestions are valuable to us and offer important information when planning our tours. Please take the time to send us your comments, likes and dislikes. This will allow us to continue to offer products that correspond to our customers needs and insure quality service.

ACCOMMODATIONS « OUR CLASSIFICATION »

The hotel classifications are based on norms which vary from one country to the next. It is important to know that hotel rooms outside North America are generally smaller and air conditioning is not always available. The bathrooms are all private and include a bath and/or shower. All of our tours and hotel stays are based on a standard room category. Any other requests cannot be guaranteed and will probably require an additional charge, ex: sea view rooms, adjoining rooms, suites, etc.
