A journey to the French Riviera is more than just a beach stay. This glamorous region of France offers so many things to see and do. Starting with the Monte Carlo casino of Monaco, the "Croisette" in Cannes, the provincial markets of Antibes or the "promenade des Anglais" in Nice. With Italy a few kilometers away on one side and Provence on the other side, you will find one of the world's most evocative regions, whose landscapes and magical light have seduced innumerable artists, and whose beach resorts have seduced innumerable hedonists. Provence and the Riviera are beautiful, and culturally rich, offering everything from amazing art museums to fabulous beaches, white-hot nightlife, and a distinctive cuisine that blends the best of the mountains and the sea.
